

FIVE LIVES LOST AS STEAMER IS HIT AND SUNK

Erin, a Lake Vessel, Cut in Two in Collision
With Steel Steamer.

DETROIT, Mich., May 31.—The steamer Erin, upbound and towing the schooner Danforth, was run into and cut in two by the steamer Cowie in the St. Clair River just below St. Clair early today and five members of the Erin's crew were drowned.

Those lost were: Chief Engineer Patrick W. Quinn, Port Dalhousie, Ont.; Fireman "Bang" Hill, St. Catharines, Ont.; Mrs. Mary Reed, Spanish River, Ont.; Watchman, shipped from Detroit, home Amherstburg; Mrs. Hubert, cook from Cleveland.

The Erin is owned by Thomas Conlon, of Thorold, Ont., and the tow by the United States Transportation Company, of Cleveland.

The collision occurred during a fog. The Cowie is a modern steel freighter, and is not thought to have been much damaged, while the Erin was a wooden vessel of the old type.

Six members of the Erin's crew and the thirteen-year-old son of Mrs. Reed, who was on the steamer, were saved. Capt. Sullivan and the boy were picked up by the yawl of the Danforth, while fishermen saved Mate George Patterson, of Port Dalhousie, Ont.; James Dargen and Grove Shook, of Windsor, Ont.; and Thomas Lyon and George Fanshaw, of Groversville, N. Y.

The rescued men were taken to the plant of the Great Lakes Engineering Company at St. Clair.

The Erin was carrying 800 tons of coal from St. Catharines to Algoma Mills. Officers of the schooner Danforth charge that the Cowie did not stop and assist in the rescue of the Erin's crew.

The Erin sank so rapidly after the collision that those members of the crew who were asleep had little chance for their lives.

MRS. C. L. SPIER III
AT TAZEWELL, VA.

Widow of H. H. Rogers's Confidential Man Has Nervous Prostration.

TAZEWELL, Va., May 31.—Mrs. Charles L. Spier, of New York, widow of the man so mysteriously killed at his Staten Island home, has come here to spend the summer. She arrived last Sunday with her brother, R. Farmer Williams, who is connected with a Philadelphia lumber firm, and is stopping at the Hatfield Hotel. Mrs. Spier is suffering from nervous prostration, and her health is so shattered that she keeps to her room and sees no one.

HOSPITALS REFUSE DYING ACTOR AID.

Stranded Thespian Dies After Vainly Seeking Charitable Care.

PITTSBURGH, May 31.—James Vernon, an actor, whose home was in New York City, died of pneumonia at the Homeopathic Hospital here.

Vernon came to this city several weeks ago with a theatrical company, but was left here without means. He was taken sick the latter part of last week and was put out of his boarding-house because he could not pay his board.

When the police found him lying on the sidewalk in a semi-conscious condition it was thought he was drunk and he was taken to the Central station, where his true condition was discovered.

The police learned that the man had wandered the streets since Sunday until he fell from exhaustion. Before he died he declared that he had applied to several hospitals for admission, but they had refused to take him in.
